

Programs for Youth

Summer Youth Employment Opportunity

City of Little Rock invests $1.06 million dollars in summer employment. These dollars include payroll for participants and worker's compensation insurance. The City of Little Rock Department of Community Programs also employs staff titled Mentors to ensure quality, safe, enjoyable work environments for the employers and youth employees.

For employers interested in participating with the City of Little Rock's Summer Employment Program, please call Michael Sanders, Community Resources Manager at 501.399.3442 or email masanders@littlerock.gov. <https://www.littlerock.gov/city-administration/city-departments/community-programs/summer-youth-employment-opportunity/>
